The lure of the open road is strong in Utah. No matter where you drive here, there’s a scenic way to get where you’re going. These seven scenic byways will fill your eyes with Utah’s iconic visual splendor.

Travelling to Utah is an adventure. It helps to come prepared, always with a little knowledge, sometimes with gear and supplies. Here are a few tips to help you start planning and packing for Utah.
Utah’s location at the crossroads of the western United States means travellers enjoy easy access to The Greatest Snow on Earth®, The Mighty Five® national parks and everything in between. Utah’s landscape is varied, ranging from high-desert plateaus to alpine meadows and snow-covered peaks to bird-filled wetlands. Across all the varied terrain you’ll find different national parks and monuments, state parks and cultural and historic activities, not to mention non-stop outdoor recreation. Without a several week road trip it’s hard to experience it all, so pick a region and itinerary to start with, then come back again and again. visitutah.com/travel-info

TRAVELLING TO UTAH
Utah is accessible to the world via Salt Lake City International Airport (SLC). Starting in Salt Lake City is the best place to begin your trip if you want to understand Utah’s culture, history and local flavours — and see the towering mountains overlooking the city. Travellers can also fly into Las Vegas’ McCarran International Airport for slightly closer access to Southern Utah sites, including a 2.5-hour drive from Zion National Park, St. George and Kanab.

TRAVELLING AROUND UTAH
With 28 scenic byways and endless beauty, Utah is the premier road trip state. When possible, leave the interstate to slow down and explore these roads. While a rental car will give you the most control, there are also shuttles and group tours. In the Wasatch Front urban corridor of Northern Utah, there is great public transportation.

It takes time to travel between major locations. Taking advantage of the scenic byways offers local scenery, welcoming small towns and off-the-beaten-track attractions. See page 50 for some of Utah’s best scenic routes.

Salt Lake City is the urban heart of Northern Utah’s vibrant Wasatch Front. A city known equally for its thriving downtown as its backyard mountain range, Salt Lake City offers cosmopolitan amenities in an easy-to-navigate urban setting. The city is just a stone’s throw from hundreds of kilometres of trails for hiking, running and exploring and a dozen ski resorts, including four within 30 minutes. This unparalleled proximity has earned Salt Lake the distinction of being the only “Ski City.” Even Park City, the first IMBA Certified Gold-Level mountain biking city in the country and home to Deer Valley and Park City mountain resorts, is less than 45 minutes up the canyon. Utah’s five national parks are an average of four hours away by car. In short, by marrying the best of urban attractions and outdoor adventures, Salt Lake City is both a travel destination itself and is the jumping-off-point for many Utah vacations.

FIND YOUR WAY

Historic Temple Square, located at Main Street and South Temple Street, is the point of origin for the four quadrants of the Salt Lake City street grid system. From Temple Square, major streets count up in increments of 100. State Street (100 East) is a primary artery running the full length of the valley beginning on Capitol Hill.

Locals frequently abbreviate street names, so you’ll hear 1300 South, 500 East spoken as “13th south, fifth east.” Popular neighbourhoods just outside downtown include the Avenues, University, Liberty Wells, 9th and 9th, 15th and 15th and Sugar House. Each district has a unique character and features local shops, theatres, restaurants and bars worth seeking out.
Great vacations go hand in hand with great food. In 2014, Wine Enthusiast Magazine named Salt Lake City one of “America’s 5 New Foodie Cities.” Salt Lake has award-winning microbreweries like Squatters, Uinta and Red Rock, distilleries like Sugar House and Beehive and skilled mixologists at hip downtown spaces like Eva, The Rest, Whiskey Street or actor Ty Burrell’s Bar-X and Beer Bar, to pair with your dinner. Tony Caputo’s Market and Liberty Heights Fresh offer the best in local, artisan food like Creminelli Fine Meats and Amano Artisan Chocolates. Evenings bring out the best cultural attractions at performing arts and music venues including Broadway at the Eccles Theatre. Award-winning productions by Ballet West, the Utah Symphony & Opera and Pioneer Theatre Company provide an international flair. Catch national and local acts headlining downtown venues like the Urban Lounge, The Depot and The State Room and at multiple outdoor summer concert series.

Discover the anchors of Salt Lake City’s art scene, then browse the several independent galleries sprinkled about downtown, including the arts, crafts and boutiques of West Pierpont Avenue and Broadway (300 South). Spring through fall there are downtown festivals and events almost every weekend including Living Traditions, Pioneer Farmers Market, Utah Pride Festival, Utah Arts Festival and the International Jazz Festival. SLUG Magazine, also known as Salt Lake UnderGround, annually hosts Craft Lake City, which celebrates the city’s strong do-it-yourself and entrepreneurial character. Other major events include FanX® Salt Lake Comic Convention™ and the Sundance Film Festival.

Settled in 1847, Salt Lake is a relatively young city, and its heritage remains strong. In fact, Salt Lake City’s most popular attraction is the 35-acre Temple Square. This beautiful downtown site is the spiritual centre for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and offers free walking tours in forty languages, extensive genealogy, great dining and frequent performances of The Tabernacle Choir at Temple Square. This Is the Place Heritage Park brings to life Utah’s Mormon and native history and marks the end of the 2,092 kilometre Mormon trail.
Salt Lake City is conveniently located midway along the Wasatch Front – Utah’s 160-kilometre-long metropolitan corridor in Northern Utah. Made internationally famous during the 2002 Winter Olympics, the Wasatch Front is home to ten world-class ski resorts, dynamic cities and unlimited year-round outdoor adventure. Here is a snapshot of top cities and attractions along the Wasatch Front:

Fans of professional sports can catch a Utah Jazz basketball game at the Vivint Smart Home Arena in downtown Salt Lake City, or lovers of the beautiful game of soccer (or should we say, football) can travel south to sing and chant alongside fans of Real Salt Lake at a Major League Soccer match in Sandy.

Farther south, appreciate exotic and native Utah ecosystems at the Living Planet Aquarium in Draper, home to more than 450 species. Continuing south to Lehi, stroll amongst the gardens and visit the shops and museums at Thanksgiving Point.

Provo and Orem, at the southern end of the front, offer easy access to Sundance Mountain Resort and Mount Timpanogos as well as Provo Canyon’s fly fishing, hiking and skiing.

North of Salt Lake City, historic Ogden offers visitors a burgeoning downtown nightlife. Settled by mountain men before the Mormons arrived in Salt Lake City, Ogden prides itself on feeling a little set apart from the rest of Utah. This is the place to find locally roasted coffee, craft breweries, farm-to-table cuisine and extensive recreation including Weber River tubing, a restored urban river waterfront and iFLY indoor skydiving.

GOHEBERVALLEY.COM/UIG
Utah is fast becoming known as a foodie’s paradise. From charming bistros and culinary hotspots to hip downtown distilleries, Utah’s dining and nightlife offer surprising and delectable options for every palate.

Diversity is the keynote here, with award-winning chefs and restaurants spanning the globe to bring us cuisines from places as diverse as Asia, Latin America, Eastern Europe, Africa, the Middle East and elsewhere; if it’s flavourful, you can probably find it here.
NEIGHBOURHOODS

There are culinary corners, streets and neighbourhoods in Salt Lake City where amazing cuisine seems to be especially concentrated. From a Parisian bistro to Middle Eastern meals, this quartet of culinary hot spots offers delightful destination dining. For more information about these neighbourhoods and restaurants go to visitutah.com/things-to-do/food-nightlife/

GREATER AVENUES

The bucolic Avenues neighbourhood, with its hilly streets and superb eateries, is remarkably reminiscent of San Francisco. At the cookbook-strewn Avenues Bistro on Third — a lovely local spot for outstanding food and drink. Ditto Cucina, where the extensive wine list is certainly a draw, but so is its’ inventive cuisine — pork belly pozole and his terrific tandoori lamb chop, for example. Indian flavours with a modern flare is the mantra at beautiful Saffron Valley East India Café. Along with traditional dishes are modern menu items like the Bombay Sloppy Joe and Saffron Banana Split. Craft beers brewed in-house and anything-but-routine pub fare is the calling at Avenues Proper Restaurant & Publick House, where their Hopspital IPA pairs perfectly with duck fat-spritzed Prop-corn or General Tso’s Pork Belly Tacos.

3RD & 3RD (DOWNTOWN)

One of SLC's iconic culinary corners is 300 West and 300 South, where for years Tony Caputo's Market & Deli has been feeding the city’s foodies with imported cheeses, chocolates and gourmet foods, plus an unbeatable array of deli sandwiches, pastas and such. Just around the corner, Cucina Toscana has been a longtime go-to destination for Tuscan-style Italian cuisine like scaloppine di vitello al limone. Travelling the other side of the globe, Laan Na Thai is a mom-and-pop eatery dishing up the vivid flavours of northeastern Thailand — nam tok, for example. And, for comfort food at its Belgian best, be sure to visit. Bruges Waffles & Frites, where the name of this fun eatery pretty much tells the story. Be sure to check out the SLC Farmers Market at Pioneer Park on Saturdays throughout the summer.

HARVEY MILK BOULEVARD

SLC's east-west corridor called Harvey Milk Boulevard (aka 900 South) is a smorgasbord of fresh, fantastic flavours. Vibrant local art decorates the walls of Meditrina, while that same vibrancy describes every dish at Jen Gilroy’s tasty tapas eatery. Just around the corner, aromas of fresh-baked pita, simmering legumes, and fresh herbs welcome guests into Laziz Kitchen, the home of mouthwatering Middle Eastern cuisine. For southern-style American comfort food, the Pig & A Jelly Jar has you covered with chicken and waffles, beignets, fried pickles and Mason jar libations. Modern, elevated Greek cuisine is on tap at Manoli's, where creative Greek meze and mains like pan-seared branzino and delectable donuts called loukoumathes. Ristorante Italiano is an inviting local gem exquisitely showcasing the cuisine of Northern Italy.

15TH & 15TH

Stroll the tree-lined blocks around 1500 South and 1500 East and you'll discover a veritable United Nations of foods and flavours. At Mazza Middle Eastern Cuisine, Lebanon, Morocco, Syria, Egypt, and other countries are well-represented with dishes. Next door to Mazza, the Trestle Tavern offers guests creative Eastern European-meets-American cuisine, ranging from paprikash, goulash and pierogies to grilled Utah trout and seared lamb tenderloin. As a bonus, stop in one of the city’s fiercely independent book stores: The King’s English.

LOG HAVEN

Log Haven is an iconic Utah dining destination, originally built as a log mansion before being purchased and made into a world-class restaurant. Nature, nurture and nourishment come together on the 40 private acres that Log Haven occupies in nearby Millcreek Canyon. Waterfalls, streams and stunning views complement inventive and eclectic cuisine, which incorporates Asian and Southwestern flavours.

EVA

The eclectic menu has a Mediterranean tinge to it — consider shrimp and grits with feta, for example. But the cuisine really spans the entire globe with dishes like togarashi fried chicken, lamb and pork cevapi and Neapolitan-style pizzas. Super-friendly service, a casual-but-classy atmosphere and a terrific selection of craft cocktails, beer and wine all add to Eva’s excellence.

J. WONG’S THAI & CHINESE BISTRO

The interesting blending of Chinese and Thai cuisines at J. Wong’s isn’t surprising once you know that the Wongs — originally from China — emigrated to Thailand before settling down here in Utah. Their restaurant has a contemporary, sleek look, with imported artwork and décor from China and Thailand. Flavours range from Thai curries and Chinese stir-fries to inventive dishes like honey-glazed walnut shrimp.

STANZA ITALIAN BISTRO & WINE BAR

Eye-popping design and décor is the hallmark of Joel LaSalle’s Stanza restaurant, which is a fine destination for excellent, eclectic Italian fare. Yellowtail crudo is a terrific way to kick off a meal here, and you’ll certainly want to tuck into at least one of the homemade pastas: bucatini alla carbonara is a great choice. A first-rate wine and cocktail collection adds to the enjoyment.

801-746-4441 | stanzaslc.com
RICO COCINA Y TEQUILA BAR

With no shortage of Mexican restaurants in town, owner Jorge Fierro raises the bar with his vibrant and colourful homage to artist Frida Kahlo. You’ll find regional Mexican cuisine like chile en nogada, escolar ceviche, and pollo cotija, along with an exceptional selection of tequilas, mezcal, cocktails, wines, beers and more. Tucked away nearby on a nearly traffic-free street, patio dining is serene at Frida Bistro.

FIRESIDE ON REGENT

If you’re attending a performance at the Eccles Theatre and looking for a pre-show meal, Fireside on Regent is conveniently located adjacent to the venue. Specialties such as wood-fired pizzas, house made pastas and white wine-braised rabbit with bucatini are outstanding.

801-359-4011 | firesideonregent.com

PAGO

Locally-sourced and natural ingredients provide a base for Pago’s dishes. The payoff is in the exquisite flavours at this farm-to-table restaurant in Salt Lake’s 9th and 9th neighbourhood. The Pago Group’s nearby East Liberty Tap House is a casual establishment that applies the same philosophy to classic bar food and elevated cocktails.

CAFÉ MADRID

Café Madrid and its lunchtime little sister, Café Gaudi, bring a splash of sunny Spain to Salt Lake City. The gorgeous restaurant and courtyard offer the setting for cuisine ranging from Spanish tapas to customised paella. Family owned, the folks at Café Madrid treat everyone like family. A terrific selection of Spanish wines and sangria round out the Café Madrid dining experience.

STATEWIDE DINING

TREE ROOM
SUNDANCE

One favourite excuse for a Sundance excursion is the experience of dining at the Tree Room. Decorated with Redford’s personal collection of Western and Native American art and memorabilia, the restaurant is named for the tree that grows in the middle of it; From grilled octopus with piquillo peppers and white beans, to elk loin with seasonal mushrooms and blackberry-pomegranate mostarda, dining here is just as memorable as the sensational setting.

FIREWOOD
PARK CITY

Firewood has always had a thing for fire. Almost all of the cooking is performed using various types of wood. Enjoy dishes such as fire-roasted Arctic char, hot-smoked organic salmon, ember-roasted cauliflower, apricot wood-grilled duck confit—all cooked naturally over open flame. The Nickel Bar is named because it’s literally covered in nickels.

THE PERFECT MOUNTAIN DESTINATION FOR EVERY SEASON.

Located 35 minutes from the Salt Lake City International Airport, Park City, Utah’s ease of access coupled with its limitless beauty and year-round adventure make it a one-of-a-kind mountain destination. Its two resorts – Deer Valley and Park City Mountain – offer a combined 3,700 skiable hectares during the winter season, and near-endless outdoor recreation in the summer and fall months. Enjoy more than 700 kilometers of free trails by bike or by foot, cool off while fly-fishing in a nearby river, shop at independently-owned boutiques and galleries that line Historic Main Street, or explore the town’s diverse culinary scene.
The quality and quantity of Utah's snow, ski resorts and winter experiences mean you truly can have the ski or snowboard vacation of your dreams. Looking for deep powder, Olympic downhill or precision-engineered terrain parks? Do you have visions of endless terrain followed by luxurious après ski? Stop dreaming and experience the real thing in Utah.

Utah’s location at the “crossroads of the west” means you have More Mountain Time™ to enjoy your vacation on our world-class snow. It means more time on the mountain; more time with family and friends. Ten of Utah’s 15 ski resorts are less than an hour from the airport. Stay anywhere along the vibrant Wasatch Front (Salt Lake City, Park City, Provo or Ogden) and you’ll find a winter paradise in your own backyard. To explore insider tips and local ideas for your time on The Greatest Snow on Earth®, go to visitutah.com/mountain-time.
EASY ACCESS

Salt Lake-area resorts (Solitude, Brighton, Snowbird and Alta) and Park City-area resorts (Park City Mountain and Deer Valley) are within 45 minutes of Salt Lake City International Airport. Ogden-area resorts (Snowbasin, Powder Mountain, Nordic Valley) are an average of an hour from the airport, as is Robert Redford’s scenic Sundance Mountain Resort in Provo Canyon.

The junctions of I-15, I-80 and I-84 in Northern Utah, combined with Salt Lake’s belt route, I-215, means wide-open avenues right to Utah’s best canyons. This layout is also convenient for ski itineraries hitting multiple Utah resorts. TRAX light rail, UTA ski buses and taxi services work together to shuttle visitors without vehicles between downtown and the resorts.

If it’s all about the journey, set your sights on Utah’s four scenic destination resorts: Cherry Peak and Beaver Mountain in Northern Utah near Logan or Eagle Point and Brian Head in Southern Utah. Many consider these undiscovered gems worth the drive for the untouched powder, mellow vibe and nonexistent lift lines. For visitors to the southern resorts, air travellers have the quickest access through Las Vegas.

Once you’re here, the only real challenge is deciding if you want to stay slope-side or stay in the city. Maybe you want access to the cultural amenities and nightlife of Salt Lake City, Ogden or Provo, or maybe you want to sleep in an extra 20–30 minutes in the morning by staying on the mountain.

WHERE TO STAY

SALT LAKE CITY

From the European-style village at Solitude to the luxurious Cliff Spa at Snowbird, Utah’s four Cottonwood Canyon resorts (the popular Brighton Resort and skier’s-only Alta round out the list) are top winter vacation destinations. Look for extensive slope-side lodging options and an average of 12+ metres of Utah’s legendary snow in these canyons. The quality of the ski runs, on-mountain amenities and the proximity of the resorts to downtown define the Salt Lake ski experience. It’s easy to catch first lift in the morning and take in the symphony in the evening. Add in a thriving culinary scene, world-class performing arts, plentiful shopping and off-the-slope activities for the whole family, and you can begin to see why the Salt Lake area has the reputation as the only true “Ski City” in the U.S.

PARK CITY

Though Historic Main Street has all the look and feel of a cozy mountain town, the Park City area is much larger than many realise. Park City Resort is among the largest resort experience in America while luxurious Deer Valley stretches into the neighbouring Heber Valley. Park City has more than 100 lodging properties and countless additional home and condo rentals in town or on the slope. The serene landscape around Heber and Midway is home to Olympic-calibre cross-country skiing at Soldier Hollow and comfortable Alpine accommodations.

SUNDANCE

Twenty minutes southwest of Heber is Robert Redford’s rustic and comfortable Sundance Mountain Resort, nestled beneath one of the most picturesque peaks of the Wasatch Mountain Range, Mount Timpanogos.

OGDEN

This historic and welcoming town has built a mighty reputation as an outdoor recreation mecca with good reason. You’ll find some of the state’s best slopes in Ogden’s backyard. Powder Mountain is one of North America’s largest resorts and offers vast backcountry access and snow kiting. The legendary runs of Snowbasin include the men’s and women’s downhill from the 2002 Winter Olympics, stunning scenery, terrain parks and beautiful on-mountain facilities. Nordic Valley’s expansion is building on Ogden Valley’s legacy of incredible skiing and riding. Ogden’s walkable downtown is growing with family amenities like the Treehouse Museum, a thriving restaurant and bar scene and classic buildings from Ogden’s history as a boomtown railroad outpost.
Utah’s combination of geography and the storms that drop their bounty along the ten ski resorts in the Wasatch Mountains lead many to make the claim that Utah has the best deep-powder skiing and riding in the country. But don’t take our word for it. Just look at the accolades from the readers of SKI magazine, Forbes and others, who annually rank Utah’s ski resorts at the top of the class. According to research of snow quality in the Cottonwood Canyons by University of Utah atmospheric scientist Jim Steenburgh, unique climate conditions produce a “just right” frequency and quantity of snow for ideal flotation when skiing and riding Utah’s powder. You may also hear the term “designer storms,” which is when more than a half-metre of snow drops at a time in the mountains while Ski City at the foot of the canyon receives light snow or a little rain, keeping the roads and footpaths clear. In the winter, follow our Weather Wednesday snow report on Instagram @visitutah.

UTAH’S SNOW SCIENCE
APRÈS & UNIQUELY UTAH

Skiers and riders come to Utah for “The Greatest Snow on Earth”, yet even those who opt not to take to the slopes can still find their “Greatest” at Utah’s resorts and surrounding communities. Here are nine experiences on and off the slopes favoured by travel writer Jill K. Robinson.

RIDE AN ORANGE BUBBLE TO CLOUD DINE

Warm up and grab lunch atop Dream Peak at the newly redesigned and expanded Cloud Dine at Park City Mountain. The orange bubble lift, a heated, covered chairlift warms you between runs as it zips you to the top of the peak in under ten minutes.

CLIFF SPA AT SNOWBIRD

Long days on the slopes can lead to sore muscles, but that doesn’t mean calling it a night. Stretch out at Snowbird’s Cliff Spa in yoga and fitness classes then chill in the eucalyptus steam room or rooftop heated pool after a spa treatment. Still not relaxed? Head downstairs to round out your après with a great meal and a cocktail. Don’t miss one of Utah’s largest stashes of premium tequila at El Chanate.

GET A LIFT FROM TOWN AT PARK CITY

There’s no need to drive to the resort when you can grab a seat on the Town Lift, which loads right on Park City’s Historic Main Street. At the end of the day, celebrate your successful turns at the High West Distillery & Saloon — with ski-in access. Don’t worry: ski gear is perfectly acceptable attire for a late afternoon whiskey tasting.

LAP THE UTAH OLYMPIC LEGACY AT SNOWBASIN

Advanced skiers can get a taste of the 2002 Winter Olympics by following the 800 metres of vertical drop that made up the women’s Wildflower Downhill course. Take the John Paul Express Quad to the Allen Peak Tram, adjust your goggles and go! For less extreme terrain, take the Needles Express Gondola to enjoy a treasure trove of intermediate and easy terrain.
Get fluent in snow kiting at Powder Mountain’s Adventure Centre, which has lessons for individuals and groups to get a grip on the basics. If you already love it and have the gear, sign up for a snow kite adventure and learn how to add to your skills or if you just want to access the acres, you can grab a day pass and kite skiing pass.

Add some authentic Western influence to your ski day at the Owl Bar. Once frequented by Butch Cassidy’s Hole-in-the-Wall Gang, the 1890s Rosewood Bar was moved from its home in Thermopolis, Wyoming to Sundance and restored for your enjoyment. Belly on up, order a whiskey, exchange stories about the best run of the day and make plans for tomorrow.

Deer Valley is a skier’s mountain. Impeccable corduroy runs, ski valets, attention to detail and awesome terrain are some of the reasons why readers of SKI magazine consistently vote Deer Valley among the best ski resorts in North America including No. 1 for guest services. It isn’t hype: Deer Valley is that good.

Brighton has been open since 1936, which means there has been a continuous focus on ski instruction for more than 80 years. Even the kids of past instructors are now teaching ski school basics. It’s hard to pass up the value of all those decades of experience helping turn novice skiers into seasoned masters.

Downhill skiing in Utah calls to mind craggy alpine peaks. At Brian Head, however, their high-speed quads zip you up the mountain overlooking the orange sandstone hoodoos (slender rock towers) of Cedar Breaks National Monument, just 5 km away. Of course, the skiing is spectacular too. Recent upgrades at the resort have many long-time regulars singing the resort’s praises even louder, making Brian Head a hidden gem among Utah’s resorts.

This is the place to get outside and experience life in the new American West. With five national parks, 44 state parks, nine national monuments, two national recreation areas and The Greatest Snow on Earth®, Utah is one big playground for travellers seeking year-round outdoor adventure. Cast a line. Hit the slopes. Rappel down a sandstone canyon. Bike across unforgettable terrain. Or simply stand back and admire the view.

HIKING

From family-friendly trails to more challenging climbs, Utah is made for hiking. The Mighty 5® national parks offer countless trails through the region’s iconic red rock landscape. Multiple national monuments, national recreation areas, national forests and state parks also blanket Southern Utah, providing ample hiking opportunities outside of The Mighty 5®. For diverse high-elevation views, hike through kilometres of lush wilderness with alpine meadows and lakes in the Uinta-Wasatch-Cache National Forest, or summit Mount Raymond to enjoy 360-degree views of Big Cottonwood Canyon, home to both Brighton Resort and Solitude Mountain Resort.

MOUNTAIN BIKING

For mountain bikers, all trails lead to Utah. The challenging climbs and descents of the slickrock trails helped put Moab on the map. But Moab is just the beginning. Travellers to Bryce Canyon and Zion national parks should plan to visit nearby Thunder Mountain and Gooseberry Mesa. For a mountaintop biking adventure, head to Park City – America’s only International Mountain Bicycling Association-Certified Gold Level mountain biking city – or travel the single-track Wasatch Crest Trail near Salt Lake City and the many sections of the Bonneville Shoreline Trail in Salt Lake City and Ogden.

WATER SPORTS

Though famous for its scenic desert vistas, Utah also ranks among the top 10 in the United States for surface area of boatable waters. The state’s rivers, lakes and reservoirs offer world-class water recreation. Rent a houseboat and cruise the Lake Powell oasis. Go fly fishing in the Green River. Swim, sail and waterski the turquoise waters of Bear Lake. Or take a heart-pounding whitewater rafting trip down the Colorado River through Cataract Canyon.

CANYONEERING

It’s hard to imagine a place better suited for canyoneering than Utah. From the deep canyons of The Mighty 5® to the desert slots of the Grand Staircase-Escalante National Monument, the state is tailor-made for both serious canyoneers and guide-accompanied novices alike. Utah has the highest concentration of slot canyons in the world, which means explorers can never run out of incredible desert terrain. Canyoneering is a serious endeavour and often highly technical, but local guides and outfitters can lead you down a trail that’s perfect for your level of adventure.

UNSURPASSED NIGHT SKIES

Utah is an astrophotography and stargazing mecca. Of the 50 accredited or in-process International Dark Sky Parks and Communities constituting the greatest concentration of the finest dark skies in the developed world (called The Great Western Starry Way), fully half are in Utah. Thanks to Utah’s beautiful and vast landscapes, much of the state ranks very low in light pollution, allowing visitors to see the Milky Way and more than 7,500 stars on a clear night, whether in Central or Southern Utah or near Salt Lake City. Many of Utah’s state and national parks and monuments also feature night sky and astronomy programmes, with guided ranger hikes that are fun for all ages. Learn more at visitutah.com/darkskies
The National Parks in Winter

Utah’s Mighty 5® national parks are transformed in the wintertime, offering a rare opportunity to experience breathtaking vistas amid peaceful solitude. Hike the trails of Arches National Park to see the snow-dusted Delicate Arch. Enjoy a guided moonlight snowshoe adventure through Bryce Canyon or the vast panoramas of Canyonlands. View the snow-capped Navajo sandstone formations and ancient petroglyphs of Capitol Reef. Or hire a guide, don a rubber “drysuit” and wade into the Virgin River in The Narrows of Zion National Park.

While visiting Southern Utah’s national parks, save time for world-class skiing at nearby resorts: Brian Head Ski Resort and Eagle Point Resort. Located three hours north of Las Vegas, Brian Head offers the luxury amenities and plentiful lodging and dining options travellers expect from a world-class resort area. Eagle Point, meanwhile, attracts skiers who crave the rustic and comfortable feel of a remote mountain village with knee-deep powder, big snow days and little competition for the 11.4 metres of average annual snowfall.
WHAT TO DO

The visitor centre is open year-round. Several easy hiking trails and the park’s scenic drive are found near the visitor centre. In only a couple hours, you can try a hike like Hickman Bridge or the Grand Wash and examine petroglyph panels left by the Fremont culture along S.R. 24. With a half-day, add the 13 kilometre scenic drive past the visitor centre and Fruita Historic District.

With a full day, and a high-clearance vehicle, you can explore the bulging uplift of rainbow-hued sandstone “reefs” and canyons of the Waterpocket Fold, or tour the Temples of the Sun and Moon and the rest of Cathedral Valley’s sculptured sandstone monoliths. During harvest season (June–October, varies based on the fruit) pick your own fruit from the park’s orchards.

With even more time, and the right supplies, request a free backcountry permit and discover yourself amid pristine wilderness. Capitol Reef has several incredible backpacking trails, but water is scarce and wayfinding knowledge is a must. The park is also growing in popularity as a rock-climbing destination. Check ahead for the current conditions of backcountry roads and washes.

CLIMATE

You’ll experience a combination of mountain and desert climates. From May–October, expect dry, warm weather in the 10°–27°C range, and significant nighttime dips down to the 5°Cs. November–March is the coldest time, with daytime temperatures peaking under 10°C in November, 4°C in January and freezing overnight. Hardy travellers, however, will encounter stunning solitude amid snowcapped monoliths.

WHERE TO STAY

The welcoming and eclectic town of Torrey is the primary gateway to Capitol Reef, and includes local dining like Cafe Diablo. In towns between Hanksville and Loa you’ll find additional motel and bed and breakfast accommodations. Boulder boasts the Zagat-rated Hell’s Backbone Grill.

Open year-round, Capitol Reef’s campgrounds are first come, first served, including a developed campground in Fruita and primitive campgrounds in the backcountry.

(1) Cleveland-Lloyd Dinosaur Quarry & Jurassic National Monument | 2 hours 30 minutes from Capitol Reef

At Utah’s newest national monument, you’ll see the world’s densest concentration of dinosaur bones — more than 12,000 discovered so far. Typically open April–September, but check the hours before you go. The kids will love it, and they get in free.

(2) Fishlake National Forest | 1 hour from Capitol Reef to Fish Lake

Enter an outdoor paradise known for its beautiful aspen forests with scenic drives leading to secluded camping, extensive ATV trails, elk hunting and fishing. Highlights include the Paiute ATV Trail and Lakeshore National Recreation Trail, home to the massive quaking aspen colony known as Pando.

(3) Fremont Indian State Park and Museum | 1 hour 45 minutes from Capitol Reef

This museum marks the site of one of the largest-known Fremont culture villages. The museum showcases the incredible discovery of this village by a road construction crew, and nearby hiking trails explore the areas petroglyphs and pictographs. You can camp or rent a teepee for an evening beneath pristine dark skies.

(4) Goblin Valley State Park | 1 hour 30 minutes from Capitol Reef

Unlike any other place in the world, this park’s whimsical sandstone landscape captures and stretches the imagination. Bring the family and experience this amazing place by hiking, camping, biking and exploring the surrounding canyons. It is also a certified International Dark Sky Park.

(5) Millsite State Park | 1 hour 45 minutes from Capitol Reef

This quiet reservoir is a great place to boat, fish and camp. There is also an eighteen-hole, public golf course adjacent to the park. Visitors who bring off-highway vehicles or mountain bikes can enjoy kilometre of trails in nearby Ferron Canyon.

(6) San Rafael Swell | 1 hour 45 minutes from Capitol Reef

Starting at the 305 metre Wedge Overlook introduces you to the expansiveness of this area. The view is a bird’s-eye perspective of the Little Grand Canyon, a 23 kilometre path cut by the San Rafael River. After the overlook, drive down into the Buckhorn Draw Backway to experience a wealth of petroglyphs, hiking, climbing and peaceful, primitive camping. The southern portion of the Swell is more rugged, but with a map and plenty of fuel you can enjoy remarkable slot canyons. Expect all roads in this area to be unpaved, including several requiring high-clearance and four-wheel drive.
WHAT TO DO

Most visitors enjoy the full 29 kilometre scenic drive (one-way). For the best experience, travel patiently and respect parking regulations. Early on the drive, the La Sal Mountains Viewpoint creates contrast between Arches’ geology and the distant peaks. The short hikes at Park Avenue, Balanced Rock and the Windows Section quickly bring you up to speed on the park’s diverse formations and high concentration of arches.

Even if you’ve seen pictures of Delicate Arch, you’ve not truly experienced it. Like the more than 2,000 arches that give the park its name, Delicate Arch begs a closer look. At Devils Garden, see one of the earth’s longest arches.

You could see it all in a half-day, but Arches National Park’s experiences can fill a full day or more of attention and exploration. The Arches visitor centre is open year-round. Stop for tips and to fill up your water bottles.

CLIMATE

You’ll typically encounter 18°–30°C temperatures through the spring and fall, often deep into November, though nights can be as much as 30° cooler. These cooler seasons are highly recommended to avoid crowds. Southeastern Utah gets hot in the summer, and daytime temperatures can exceed 38°C. You can beat the heat by planning ahead and carrying sunscreen and extra water. During the summer, consider exploring in the morning and evening. In winter, enjoy iconic landmarks in solitude. You may need poles and shoe spikes to navigate icy or snowy trails.

WHERE TO STAY

Eight kilometres away in Moab, find great local cuisine, coffee, brews and abundant accommodations or seek out nearby resort destinations like Red Cliffs Lodge or Sorrel River Ranch and Spa. Pack your tent for the public lands that surround Moab. There are additional lodging options in nearby Green River. Devils Garden Campground (see Utah Bucket List, page 6) fills up, so make reservations up to six months in advance for stays March 1–October 31.

INSIDER TIPS

1. Arches is far less crowded at sunrise and sunset, and maybe the most striking time to visit. March–October is busy, especially on holidays, weekends and mid-morning.

2. Well-prepared hikers can escape the crowd on the 13 kilometre Devils Garden trail. With stamina, agility and a permit or guide, visit the stunning labyrinth called the Fiery Furnace.

3. Follow @archesnps on Twitter and Facebook and visit nps.gov/arch for park alerts about current conditions and to view the entrance station webcam.

4. The short Dead Horse Point Mesa Scenic Byway (S.R. 313) connects Moab and Arches to the road’s namesake state park and the Island in the Sky district of Canyonlands.

Many visitors find the views at Dead Horse Point to be more captivating than the Grand Canyon. A visitor centre and gallery provide a wonderful introduction to the park’s geology. There are also mountain biking trails, campsites and reservable yurts.

(2) Green River | 45 minutes from Arches visitor centre

Green River is the name of a welcoming small town, a lush state park and one of the West’s great rivers. Stay in the town of Green River as a base camp for Arches National Park or for a rafting trip on the Green River Daily or other world-class floats. With a rafting guide or permit, take on the Green River’s famous Desolation Canyon.

In southeastern Utah, the La Sal and Abajo mountain ranges provide excellent opportunities for remote camping, hiking, biking, fishing, hunting and mountain climbing. They also serve as scenic backdrops to state and national parks throughout the region.

(4) Moab Mountain Biking | Most trails 10–20 minutes from Arches or Moab

The Slickrock Trail of Sand Flats is one of the most famous trails located within a stone’s throw of the biking/hiking/off-road mecca known as Moab. But there’s biking for days: Magnificent 7, Intrepid, Klondike Bluff and Bar M are just a few of the must-ride trail systems in the area.

Take the 27 kilometre scenic byway down S.R. 279 to access soaring sandstone cliffs, rock climbing, cycling trails, petroglyphs, dinosaur tracks, arches and views of the Colorado River. Popular arches include Bowtie, Corona and Jug Handle.

Part of the Dinosaur Diamond Prehistoric Highway, the 71 kilometre S.R. 128 accesses trailheads, rafting, wine tasting and renowned hiking and multi-pitch climbing at Fisher Towers and Castle Valley, also popular backdrops for film and TV from John Wayne to “Westworld.”

It’s 4 hours from Salt Lake City to Arches (or 1 hour 45 minutes from Grand Junction, CO). Arches is a few minutes north of Moab and around 40 minutes from Canyonland’s Island in the Sky district. Here, scenic byways follow rivers and canyons to limitless outdoor adventure.
Two mighty rivers form wave after wave of deep canyons

WHAT TO DO

Utah’s largest national park has some of the least-visited areas in the nation, yet also has some of the most well-photographed icons in the West. You can customise your Canyonlands adventure with short but inspiring hikes for the whole family, a day or more on the rapids, or a well-planned retreat into the backcountry.

Island in the Sky is the popular northern section accessible from Moab, where easy and moderate hikes access views of the Colorado River to the east and the Green River to the west.

The Needles district is named for its profusion of red rock spires and sandstone fins. There are short hikes, but Needles is also a backpacker’s playground. The remote Maze district is Canyonlands’ jumbled stone playground, requiring backcountry use permits and a high-clearance, 4WD vehicle. Or, with an extra day, see the Great Gallery pictographs of Horseshoe Canyon.

CLIMATE

Spring and fall are ideal seasons to visit Canyonlands with daytime temperatures of 60o–85oF. Like nearby Arches, Canyonlands warms up significantly in the summer months reaching 100+oF. Beat the heat by planning ahead, carrying sunscreen and extra water, and playing in the morning and evening during the peak of summer. Temperatures will dip to freezing at night by late November, but winter is an extraordinarily beautiful time in Canyonlands. Incredible “monsoon” season thunderstorms on late summer afternoons can result in potentially dangerous flash floods. Check conditions in advance.

WHERE TO STAY

Moab and Monticello are popular base camps for Island in the Sky and the Needles districts, respectively, and each offers excellent accommodations. While Moab is known as an outdoor adventure destination and for its proximity to Arches National Park, Monticello is a high-elevation retreat with easy access to Bears Ears National Monument, Monument Valley Navajo Tribal Park and the Four Corners region. Consider Green River for Horseshoe Canyon and Blanding or Bluff for Bears Ears.

INSIDER TIPS

1. Close to Moab, the Island in the Sky is the most visited district, but outside of overlooks and Mesa Arch (especially at sunrise), the scenic, though strenuous, trails are seldom crowded.

2. A permit is required to bike or drive the popular White Rim Trail and for all overnight camping trips in the backcountry.

3. Squaw Flat Campground in the Needles district is a great base camp for day hikes into the backcountry, but go prepared: Carry extra water and be alert for black bears.

4. The remote Maze district easily occupies three days, plus hours to drive there. Solitude and endless splendor are the rewards for extremely well-prepared self-sufficient wayfinders.

Shash Jaa and Indian Creek units cover a broad expanse of red rock, juniper forest, high plateau, cultural, historic and prehistoric legacy that includes an abundance of early human and Native American historical sites, including Newspaper Rock and House on Fire.

(2) Edge of the Cedars State Park Museum | 1 hour 30 minutes from Needles visitor centre

This museum is a beautiful repository for ancient artefacts in the Four Corners region. The exhibits and on-site kiva showcase Ancestral Puebloan culture along with contemporary Native American items and the largest display of artefacts in the area.

(3) Goosenecks State Park | 30 minutes from Monument Valley

Look down upon the San Juan River 300 metres below you and see the results of 300 million years of erosion. It’s worth lingering for the sunset. From this primitive state park, you can see the famous goosenecks and also enjoy a picnic and a campsite with great views.

(4) Hovenweep National Monument | 2 hours 15 minutes from Needles visitor centre

In a stark and beautiful landscape of sage and juniper, explore the astonishing sites of Hovenweep’s six prehistoric villages. In the 13th century, Ancestral Puebloans built towers and other structures, some skillfully balanced on canyon rims.

(5) Monument Valley Navajo Tribal Park | 2 hours 30 minutes from Needles visitor centre

The iconic symbol of the American West and sacred heart of the Navajo Nation will feel hauntingly familiar and deeply spiritual to fans of Hollywood as your Navajo guide escorts you through the park — the best way to experience the park. Please respect tribal customs.

(6) Natural Bridges National Monument | 2 hours 15 minutes from Needles visitor centre

Discover three majestic bridges carved by water and time including Sipapu (“place of emergence”), the world’s second-largest natural bridge. See the bridges from the scenic drive or hike down moderate to difficult trails. Stay late for a star show under some of the nation’s darkest skies.

(7) Valley of the Gods and Cedar Mesa | 1 hour from Monument Valley

A number of tall, red, isolated mesas, buttes and cliffs tower above the valley floor and can be seen while driving along Valley of the Gods’ 27 km gravel road. Nearby Cedar Mesa’s remote, rugged backcountry trails offer adventurers solitude, archaeology and geographic beauty.
WHAT TO DO

You’ll find Bryce Canyon is equally suited for roadtrippers looking for short walks to viewpoints and for backcountry hikers seeking complete solitude.

Start your visit at the Bryce Canyon visitor centre, open year-round. The 60 metre scenic drive accesses multiple overlooks and some of the park’s best vistas. The Rim Trail offers near-continuous looks deep into the main amphitheater while Rainbow, Yovimpa and Inspiration Points access wildly different perspectives. Return at different times of day and night and discover the park’s ever-changing personality.

The most brilliant colours of the park come alive with the rising and setting of the sun, and the show continues into the night with dark sky astronomy programmes. Summertime offers myriad walking and hiking trails along the rim and toward the bottom of the canyon. Some of the park’s iconic hoodoos stand 10 stories tall — something you’ll have to hike into the canyon to fully appreciate. Many visitors think it’s even better seen by horseback. In the winter, layer up for cold-weather hiking, cross-country skiing or snowshoeing when conditions permit.

CLIMATE

Travellers will experience the best of Southern Utah’s mountain and desert climates at Bryce Canyon. Summer visitation peaks during July’s “monsoon” season where travellers will encounter generally dry, warm weather around 26°C interspersed with dramatic afternoon lightning storms. Night dips into the 0–5°C’s. November–March are the coldest, with temperatures peaking in the 0–5°C’s and freezing at night. Because of its higher elevation, Bryce is cooler than the other national parks and carries snow longer into spring.

WHERE TO STAY

Bryce Canyon City, Panguitch, Tropic, Cannonville and Henrieville offer a range of accommodations on Highway 12 with easy access to Bryce Canyon, Dixie National Forest and Grand Staircase–Escalante National Monument. There is camping in the park, but it fills up fast. Nearby Kodachrome Basin State Park also offers great camping. Bryce Canyon Lodge, a National Historic Landmark, is open April through November and offers cabin rentals. Check for limited availability during winter months.

INSIDER TIPS

2. Bryce Canyon’s pristine dark skies mean incredibly starry nights. Sign up early for astronomy programmes (see Bucket List, page 4). Full moon hikes mean eerily well-lit hoodoos, but don’t forget your headlamp and jacket.

3. High altitude hiking means sunscreen, hats, long sleeves and extra water. The rim at Bryce varies from 2,400 to 2,700 metres.

4. Save Presidents Day weekend in February for the Bryce Canyon Winter Festival or bring your own mule for the May Mule Days.

(1) Anasazi State Park Museum | 1 hour 40 minutes from Bryce Canyon

At the base of the towering 3,353 metre Boulder Mountain get an up close and personal look into life from almost 1,000 years ago. Explore what was once one of the largest Ancestral Puebloan communities west of the Colorado River.

(2) Eagle Point Resort | 1 hour 45 minutes from Bryce Canyon

Eagle Point Resort is best known as a family-friendly ski area with fresh powder and varied runs, and great snowshoeing. In the summer, the area offers a respite from the heat among the high elevations of the Tushar Mountains, great for hiking and mountain biking. The Tushar’s ridgeline is about a 20-minute hike from the resort. The most dramatic vistas are along the Skyline Trail, a moderate hike from the Big Flat trailhead.

Discover the kaleidoscopic colours of fossilized, prehistoric wood alongside expansive vistas of the surrounding mountains and Grand Staircase-Escalante National Monument. Cool off in idyllic Wide Hollow Reservoir and enjoy great fishing and camping at this state park base camp.

(4) Grand Staircase–Escalante National Monument | 30 minutes from Bryce Canyon to the Cannonville Visitor Centre

This massive and remote area is packed with outdoor adventure and star-filled night skies. Slot canyons, slickrock and other geologic wonders fill your line of sight while hiking, mountain biking, off-roading and camping. Get help planning at the visitor centres in Big Water, Kanab, Escalante or Cannonville. Check out the 6 kilometre hike to Escalante Natural Bridge.

(5) Kodachrome Basin State Park | 40 minutes from Bryce Canyon

This state park features 67 monolithic stone spires, part of a multicoloured landscape so beautiful it earned the nickname “Kodachrome” after a popular Kodak film. Today, visitors enjoy camping and hiking across 2,240 acres of photogenic, geologic wonder.

(6) Red Canyon | 20 minutes from Bryce Canyon

This area is one of the most distinctive stretches along the All-American Road: Scenic Byway 12. At one point, the road actually cuts through a tunnel in the red rock. Stop at the interpretive visitor centre to learn about the surrounding Dixie National Forest and all the multi-use trails that wind through red rock hoodoos and vistas.
WHAT TO DO

From Springdale or the visitor centre, join fellow adventurers on the park’s multi-passenger shuttle system, which is the only motorised transportation allowed in the main canyon past the historic Zion Lodge during most of the year.

Plan time for ranger-led programmes and the Human History Museum. Looking to hike? Explore Pa’rus, Grotto and The Watchman trails with the whole family. If you’re looking for something adventurous, hike to Observation Point, where Zion’s monoliths are part of a grand landscape that spreads out beneath you.

Take a half day, or two days with a permit, and explore Zion Canyon’s famous slot canyons, including The Narrows. These canyons are even better with a guide, and with the help of a local outfitter you can even hike them in winter.

For more solitude, visit the Kolob Canyons section and the backcountry of the West Rim.

CLIMATE

May–October visitors will encounter highs in Zion from 90–100°F. Escape the heat by getting in the river or stopping in the visitor centre or museum. Afternoon thunderstorms occasionally drench the canyon — which can lead to flash floods in the narrowest sections of the canyon. Expect somewhat cooler temperatures (sometimes up to 30 degrees difference) early in the morning and late in the evening, as well as in early spring and late fall. Though winter days can be cold, the park is open, serene and beautiful.

WHERE TO STAY

On scenic S.R. 9, Springdale is the primary gateway to Zion, and it offers a full range of accommodations as well as diverse dining, coffee, spa and entertainment hotspots. Reserve a spot for the Watchman or South campgrounds. Numerous lodging options are available in nearby towns La Verkin, Virgin, Rockville, Cedar City and St. George. Though further away, Kanab is also a great base camp for certain itineraries.

INSIDER TIPS

1. For the best experience, arrive early. Take the free town shuttle from near your Springdale hotel. Always hike respectfully and carry extra water and sun protection.

2. There are popular hikes at Angels Landing and The Narrows, but serious hikers may consider Hidden Canyon, Observation Point, and guided canyoneering in lesser-known canyons.

3. The distinctive red asphalt of the Zion–Mt. Carmel Highway leads through a narrow 2 kilometre tunnel to lesser-known hikes near the East Entrance. Fee for large RVs, with limits.

4. Follow @zionnps on Twitter and Facebook and visit nps.gov/zion for park alerts.

(1) Brian Head Resort | 1 hour 30 minutes from Zion

In the winter, pair a trip to Zion National Park with a great ski day. In warmer temperatures, rent a mountain bike and ride around the resort area, or enjoy an evening concert and great BBQ at cooler high-elevation temperatures.

(2) Cedar Breaks National Monument | 1 hour 45 minutes from Zion

Drive at 3,000 metres through the lush Dixie National Forest, where a fairyland amphitheatre of multicoloured limestone strata plunges 600 metres deep into the plateau. Explore hiking trails or camp under the stars in summer and enjoy cross-country skiing in winter.

(3) Coral Pink Sand Dunes State Park | 1 hour from Zion

This park boasts 2,000 acres of sand open to OHVs. It’s the only major sand dune field on the Colorado Plateau, and great for OHV enthusiasts, hikers, sand boarders and families in search of a unique site.

(4) Dixie National Forest | 45 minutes from Zion to Red Cliffs

Hike in Pine Valley Recreation Area or Red Cliffs National Conservation Area, bike among the brilliant red spires of Red Canyon, fish at Navajo or Panguitch lakes, tour the east fork of the Sevier River, or explore scenic Boulder Mountain. All areas have camping.

(5) Glen Canyon and Lake Powell | 1 hour 45 minutes from Zion

Accessed from Wahweap marina (or Bullfrog marina from the northeast), this is a 1.2 million-acre paradise for houseboaters, kayakers, anglers and photographers. For the most adventurous, Rainbow Bridge National Monument is accessible from Lake Powell (depending on lake level and trail condition), and is one of the world’s largest natural bridges. With a permit, serious trekkers can also backpack to the bridge.

(6) Snow Canyon State Park | 1 hour from Zion

Cut by water, sculpted by wind and time, Snow Canyon’s Navajo sandstone cliffs share the same history and geology as Zion, and offers hiking, climbing, cycling and camping.

(7) State Park Reservoirs | 45 minutes from Zion

Sand Hollow State Park brings together boating, fishing and off-roading all in one place, with 15,000 acres of perfectly sculpted dunes. Quail Creek State Park has some of the warmest waters in the state and lures boaters and anglers year-round. Both of these, as well as Gunlock State Park, offer great spots to camp in a red rock desert setting.
Northern Utah is the place to discover vibrant cities such as Salt Lake City, Park City, Ogden and Provo. It’s also the place to find much of The Greatest Snow on Earth®, with world-class skiing and adventure sports. But great cities and great snow are just the beginning.
Go backpacking in the Ashley National Forest, stopping to camp by alpine lakes at elevations up to 4,100 metres. The forest is also home to the spectacularly beautiful Flaming Gorge National Recreation Area. Famous for its trout fishing, Flaming Gorge offers a host of recreational options – from hiking and camping to waterskiing and powerboating on the reservoir or rafting and fly fishing on the emerald waters of the Green River, all while surrounded by towering red cliffs.

The charming community of Vernal serves as a gateway to Ashley National Forest as well as Utah’s dinosaur country, earning it the nickname of Dinosaurland. Home to one of the largest quarries of prehistoric Jurassic dinosaur bones, Vernal is located just minutes from Dinosaur National Monument. Visit the Dinosaur Quarry Exhibit Hall to view 1,500 dinosaur bones, then examine ancient petroglyphs carved by the Fremont people, then embark on a nearby whitewater rafting adventure.

For more outdoor action, go hiking and fishing in the Uinta Mountains. Swim, sail and water ski the brilliant blue waters of Bear Lake State Park on Utah’s state border with Idaho. Or take a 2.4 km hike up 304 metres to explore Timpanogos Cave National Monument, just south of Salt Lake City. With stalactites, stalagmites, “draperies” and countless other geological formations, Timpanogos offers a one-of-a-kind experience that’s worth the effort.
Nestled between Arches and Canyonlands National Parks, in the heart of Utah’s spectacular red-rock desert, the town of Moab is considered the gateway to Utah’s famous The Mighty 5® National Parks. But that’s just the beginning. Moab is also one of America’s great multisport destinations. Your visit can be as varied as pedaling Moab’s world-class singletrack mountain biking trails to hiking its famed national parks to paddleboarding or rafting the Colorado River.

BEFORE YOU GO

Travelling to Utah is an adventure. It helps to come prepared, always with a little knowledge, sometimes with gear and supplies. Utah’s amenity-rich cities on the metropolitan Wasatch Front can gear you up for wherever your Utah travels take you, and there are towns and cities throughout the state with food, fuel, supplies and other resources to ensure you can travel safely between destinations. Still, the more you consider what you’ll need in advance, the less likely you’ll be surprised by the unexpected. Here are a few tips to consider before your trip.

Elevation: Most adventures in Utah start at more than 1,219 metres above sea level and some areas in and between national parks exceed 2,743 metres. In the mountains, elevations can reach up to 3,000 to 4,000 metres. To prevent altitude sickness, don’t do strenuous activities on your first couple of days so your body can adjust, know your limits and take it slow.

Hydration: Staying hydrated is key any time of year in the arid, high desert country of Utah and especially when outside recreating. Many parks have places to refill your water bottles, but on longer road trips or more remote areas, carry extra. A quick rule of thumb is that you should expect to consume at least 16 ounces of water or more per hour in hot weather.

Food: Nutrient-dense foods like jerky, trail mix, dried fruit, canned fish or tuna pouches, and nuts or nut butters are also lightweight — don’t worry though, for all but the most serious backpackers, these are just to tide you over. Most great Utah outdoor adventures and destinations are near excellent base camps with several local options for a hot meal.

Clothing and shoes: One of the most important keys for clothing is layers. Some opt for a lightweight, long-sleeve base layer even when the summer sun is shining. When hiking, wear sturdy, closed-toe hiking boots that you’ve broken in to protect your feet and provide traction.

Gear: Backpacks exist for a reason, and that’s to carry necessary gear with you: trail snacks, extra water, sunscreen, jacket or layers to add or remove and to carry out your rubbish. If you’re travelling far from the road and trailhead, carry first-aid materials and rescue aids just in case — and let someone know where you’re going and when to expect you back.

Seasons: Utah is a four-season destination. The arid, high-elevation climate means long stretches of brilliant summer sun with sporadic bouts of rain. In November–March, temperatures are cooler. The hottest months are June–August. In Southern Utah, summer and early fall are “monsoon season” and can bring threatening thunderstorms, pounding rains and flash floods. Snow is possible at all elevations in winter, but particularly at higher elevation passes and destinations. visitutah.com/weather

Driving: Thanks to a crossroads of interstates with great scenic byways, it’s easy to get around Utah. It can be several hours between destinations, so keep an eye on fuel levels and plan your itinerary to avoid drowsy driving or driving in inclement weather, such as winter snowstorms. Some canyons require snow tires or chains in winter and some roads close for the winter. visitutah.com/roads

Backcountry: Venturing into Utah’s backcountry — meaning recreation areas further from common amenities, such as restrooms, marked trails and visitor centres — is a rewarding endeavor for experienced, well-prepared adventurers. These areas often require a permit. Stop at the nearest visitor centres or ranger stations, check weather and road conditions and follow all backcountry ethics, including Leave No Trace principles.

Ski: In addition to ski jacket and pants, insulating layers and socks, snow gear includes boots, helmet, goggles, gloves, hat, sunglasses and a neck gaiter. Check fit on kids from previous year, pack sunscreen, lip balm, tissues and snacks. visitutah.com/ski

Go with a guide: Not sure where to start? Not only can guides get you there safely, they often take you and your family to places only accessible with a permit and the right gear. Guided hiking trips can vary from half-day hiking clinics to backpacking expeditions lasting a week or more. visitutah.com/guides

Adaptive travel: Utah has several organizations working together to advocate and offer specialized recreation plans through the use of adaptive equipment, trained staff and scholarships. Discover cycling, paddlesports, indoor/outdoor climbing, horseback riding, mountain biking, river-rafting, skiing, snowboarding, yurt camping and many more. Families and friends are encouraged to participate. visitutah.com/accessible

“Utah has a beauty that is diverse, and visitors notice the variety right away. It sets us apart from other states. The Rocky Mountains, red rocks and western desert are all beautiful and different. Be prepared to stay an extra day or two. Visitors are impressed with Utah and enjoy themselves so much they wish they could stay for a few more days. If you anticipate a three-day or 10-day trip, plan to be impressed and want to stay longer.”

— Governor Gary R. Herbert
